

Book Fair Competition

Would you like to win a £5 voucher to spend at our upcoming Book Fair in March? If so, write a review of your favourite book to try to encourage others to read it. Don't forget to include an eye-catching picture.

Closing date for competition entries: Wednesday 1st March 2017

Example

Review: The Gruffalo's Child by Mrs Day

The Gruffalo's Child is written by the famous Julia Donaldson and is a story for younger children. It is about a small creature who decides to embark on an adventure through the dark, scary wood to find the Big Bad Mouse, despite being warned about him by her father.

Julia Donaldson draws the reader into the story with her rhyming verse and the repetitive nature of the story is really engaging and entertaining for younger children, encouraging them to join in.

The artwork of the illustrator Axel Scheffler, really brings the book to life and stimulates the imagination. It is colourful and eye catching and perfectly matches the verse written by Donaldson, allowing younger children to follow the plot easily.

Overall, this is an excellent book with a great plot and entertaining characters. If you haven't read it, what are you waiting for?

Book Review	Me	Parent
EYFS/Y1: I included my name and age
EYFS/Y1: I have drawn a picture of the main character and written one sentence about them.
Y2 upwards: My book review includes the title, the name of the author and the illustrator, with capital letters in the correct places.
Y2 upwards: I used adjectives to describe the main characters.
Y2 upwards: I used sentences with 'because' in them when giving my opinion.
Y3 upwards: I used a question at the beginning to interest the reader.
Y3 upwards: I wrote a short summary of the main events in the story but did not include the ending.
Y3 upwards: I gave my recommendation and a star rating or marks out of ten.
Y5/Y6 upwards: I have used quotes and examples from the text that support my opinions and points of view.

We haven't given a set template for this task as we would like the children to be creative in their presentation, however if your child would prefer a template we have saved two templates on our website here.